

Tim & Nicole Strange Missionaries to Costa Rica

Tim & Nicole Strange, missionaries to Costa Rica, work among the indigenous people groups. Tim, as a single missionary, moved to Costa Rica in 2011 and began working among the indigenous tribes. While sleeping on the floor of a church in Talamanca, the Lord spoke to Tim through a dream and confirmed His leading to work among the indigenous tribes.

After a brief courtship and then marriage in 2012, Nicole & the girls joined Tim in Costa Rica. Over the years their ministry among the indigenous tribes has spanned across the country of Costa Rica from the Caribbean to the Pacific coast. In the initial years their focus had been among the BriBri and the Cabecar Tribes in the Talamanca Region, where working with a ministry team they were able to establish discipleship programs in 12 indigenous churches with over 250 adults and children studying Global University's Christian Service and Christian Life series. In the past four years the Lord has had them working primarily among the Guaymi Tribe on the La Casona Territory. The Strange's have been involved in supporting young church plants, evangelism through public school programs and showing the Jesus Film, discipleship of believers, training and equipping children's workers, mentoring pastors, construction of Sunday school classrooms, and now planting a new church among the Guaymi Tribe.

Please keep Tim & Nicole and their ministry in your prayers as they work to spread the gospel in Costa Rica!

We're glad you're here!

And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark 16:15

Since October 2010, Mountain of Hope Faith Church has been ministering to the local community.

A non-denominational, Bible-believing church, we minister hope for the hurting, through faith in Jesus!

Come and be loved and encouraged!

June 2022

*I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the Lord.
Psalm 122:1 (KJV)*

When we go to the house of the Lord together, it is an opportunity that so many take for granted. This time should be used to bring glory and honor to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. It is a time that we can reflect on the many blessings He has given us. This time together is also a time to encourage one another in the faith and to pray with one another; face our challenges in life together. And, it is a time to rejoice because of the victories!

With a shoulder to cry on or an ear that will simply listen, we can lift each other up and, together, live a victorious life over our adversary, the Devil.

So, with praise and honor to the Lord, with His help, and with encouragement to each other, we will make it in Jesus name!

Cheerfully in Christ,
Pastor Rob

Saturday, July 2—The Book of Daniel. In 605 B.C. Jerusalem was conquered by the Babylonians and many of their best young men were taken into captivity. Daniel and his friends were among those taken to Babylon to serve the powerful King Nebuchadnezzar.

Faced with imminent death, Daniel proves himself a trusted adviser and is placed among the king's wise men. Threatened by death at every turn Daniel never ceases to serve the king until he is forced to choose between serving the king and honoring God. With his life at stake Daniel has nothing but his faith to stand between him and the lion's den.

Do you have a need? We would love to have the opportunity to pray with you and for you. If you have a prayer request, please let our Pastors know. Or, you can use one of the cards located in the foyer and the fellowship hall to write out your prayer request.

"And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive." Mathew 21:22 KJV
